Personal Information Protection Policy

Definitions

Personal Information – means information about an identifiable individual (including name, home address and phone number). Personal information does not include Contact information.

Contact Information – means information that would enable an individual to be contacted at a place of business. The use of Contact information is not covered by, or restricted by, this policy or the Personal Information Protection Act.

1 – Collecting Personal Information

- 1.1 Unless the purposes of collecting personal information are obvious and a member voluntarily provides personal information for those purposes, NSARC will communicate the purposes for which personal information is collected, orally or in writing, at the time of collection.
- 1.2 NSARC will only collect member information that is necessary to fulfil the following purposes:
 - To verify identity for the Register of Members (Name, Mailing Address, Call Sign, Licence Qualification);
 - To send out Club membership information (Mailing address, Email address);
 - To contact members for Club activities or Emergency Communications (Email address, Telephone numbers);
 - To publish the Club Directory (Name, Mailing Address, Call Sign, Telephone numbers, Email address);
 - To apply for Club insurance policies;
 - To meet regulatory or legal requirements.

2 – Consent

- 2.1 NSARC will obtain member consent to collect, use or disclose personal information (except where, as noted below, we are authorized to do so without consent).
- 2.2 Consent can be provided orally, in writing, or electronically or it can be implied where the purpose for collecting, using or disclosing the personal information would be considered obvious and the member voluntarily provides personal information for that purpose.
- 2.3 Consent may also be implied where a member is given notice and a reasonable opportunity to opt-out of their personal information being used for a particular purpose and the member does not opt-out.
- 2.4 Subject to certain exceptions (e.g. withdrawal of consent would frustrate performance of a legal obligation), members can withhold or withdraw consent to use their personal information in certain ways. Such a decision may affect operation of the Club. If so, NSARC will explain the situation to assist the member in making the decision.
- 2.5 NSARC may collect, use or disclose personal information without the member's knowledge or consent in the following limited cases:
 - When the collection, use or disclosure of personal information is permitted or required by law;
 - In an emergency that threatens an individual's life, health, or personal security;
 - When the personal information is available from a public source (e.g., telephone directory, Call Sign database).

3 – Using and Disclosing Personal Information

- 3.1 NSARC will only use or disclose personal information to fulfil the purposes identified at the time of collection.
- 3.2 NSARC will not use or disclose member personal information for any additional purpose unless we obtain consent to do so.
- 3.3 NSARC will not sell member lists or personal information to other parties.

4 – Retaining Personal Information

- 4.1 NSARC will retain personal information only as long as necessary to fulfil the identified purposes or a legal purpose.

5 – Providing Member Access to Personal Information

- 5.1 Members have a right to access their personal information. A request to access personal information must be made in writing to the Club Secretary. NSARC will make the requested information available within 30 business days, or provide written notice of an extension where additional time is required to fulfil the request.

6 – Ensuring Accuracy of Personal Information

- 6.1 Members may request correction to their personal information in order to ensure its accuracy and completeness. A request to correct personal information must be made in writing to the Club Secretary.
- 6.2 If the personal information is demonstrated to be inaccurate or incomplete, NSARC will correct the information and send the corrected information to any organization to which NSARC disclosed the personal information in the previous year.

7 – Securing Personal Information

- 7.1 NSARC makes no special effort to secure Personal Information, indeed it publishes a Club Directory and callout lists. Any Personal Information supplied to NSARC may become publicly available through the Club Directory, callout lists etc.

8 – Questions and Complaints: The Role of the Privacy Officer or designated individual

- 8.1 The Club Secretary is responsible for ensuring NSARC's compliance with this policy and the Personal Information Protection Act.
- 8.2 Members should direct any complaints, concerns or questions regarding NSARC's compliance in writing to the Club Secretary. If the Club Secretary is unable to resolve the concern, the Member may also write to the Information and Privacy Commissioner of British Columbia.
